Bonnets, Spring styles, some small enough and some large enough. For Ladies, Misses and Childrens trimmed and untrimmed Hats. A beautiful assortment, come lay away your old hat, and always come to Creech's before you buy a new one &c., &c.

Keep it before the people, that I told the people six months ago, that I intended to run through my campaign, with my motto to give each and every individual value received, for their valuable support, giving the Ladies a fine opportunity to exercise there inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen, and since that time thousands have show their good judgment by coming and demonstrating the truth of my assertion. I tell you Creech's is the place. And permit me to return my sincere thanks for your very liberal and valuable patronage for the last twenty-five years. I hope by strict attention to business and honest dealing, giving each and every one the worth of their money that I will continue to receive a liberal share of your patronage. The rest of my talking I shall do at my place of business which is Creech's corner Fayetteville Street Raleigh

LIFE INSURANCE.

ALL CASH PLAN OF THE

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

W. H. CROW, General Agent for North Carolina and Virginia, South of the James.

Accumulated Capital, over	$10,000,00
Annual Income,	6,000,000
Surplus, above Liabilities,	2,000,000

THE ÆTNA

Has $136 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

ALL POLICIES STRICTLY NON-FORFEITING.

CASH RATES!
CASH POLICIES!
CASH DIVIDENDS!

DIVIDENDS PAID ANNUALLY, COMMENCING AT THE END OF THE YEAR.

Dividends may be used to reduce the annual Premium or increase the Cash value of the Policy.

NON-FORFEITING CASH PLAN.

The Ætna issues Policies on the various forms of whole life and endowment insurance, with dividends on the contribution plan, which may be applied to the reduction of each annual premium after the first, or the full premium, may be paid each year and the dividens applied to reduce the number of annual premiums, together with the period fixed for the maturity of the insurance, so that endowments can be paid to the insured before the time originally specified, and life policies before death.

By this plan of applying the dividends to lessen the cost of the insurance on the original policy, instead of increasing the amount of insurance, and of course its total cost, and the policies will become self-sustaining much sooner than in other companies; and in case of inability to continue payments, give a larger paid-up-policy.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

The New York Insurance Monitor says of the ÆTNA:

"No Life Insurance Company ever achieved so complete a success as this popular institution.—Its popularity is altogether unprecedented in the annals of commercial enterprise in this country."

HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES

SAY OF THE

BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIHU WASHBURN.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

MONDAY, APRIL 26, 1869.

WHAT LOYALTY MEANS.

If any doubt has existed heretofore, in the public mind as to what the Radicals mean by the term loyalty, Gen. Grant's recent appointments, will remove that doubt. At one time a loyal man meant, one who is and always was a true Union man, one who advocated the war on the part of the U. S. government in opposition to the rebellion and who gave constant "aid and comfort" to said government. This definition has, at this time, been exploded. The fact, that Holden is regarded by the party as a proper man to hold office, renders that definition nugatory.

Now, it is palpable, that to have been a secessionist, a strong rebel, a fighter in the Confederate armies, or a blatant blatherskite in favor of the Southern cause, and then when the war ended, to have made haste to get in the dust and eat dirt—to profess devotion to the Radical party and advocate its measures, are the true tests of loyalty.

As for instance, Holden is a more loyal man than Gov. Worth or the Editor of the Sentinel, although both of them opposed Holden's secession schemes to the bitter end. Calvin Rogers is a better loyal man than Andrew Miller—Colonel Sinclair, who fought in the Confederate army, more loyal than Capt. Rutherford, a U. S. soldier.—Gen. Longstreet a more loyal man than his predecessor, who could take the test oath. Saml. T. Carrow, the new Marshal, a more loyal man than that original Republican and honest man, Daniel R. Goodloe. Mr. Goodloe was instrumental in forming the Radical party. He supposed he was forming an honest party, and ought long since to have seen his mistake and left it; but he has held on until they have kicked him out, and he deserves it. Let Daniel seek the association of honest, respectable men, where he properly belongs.

By the way, Gen. Grant, and the "truly loyal" in North Carolina, very plainly doubt the loyalty of the carpet baggers. Few of them have recently gotten any of the offices. They are in fair way to be kicked out, from Abbott down. The carpet-baggers are not loyal enough now for Gen. Grant and the scallawags. Well, we shall enjoy a free fight among the loyalists. Let them go it. We do not care which whips.

THE COMING WAR.

The Standard changes its tune on the prospect of war with England and Spain. Sometime ago, it was blatant on the subject of war and its boastings were ridiculous, but as the war cloud begins to grow and blacken, it takes on every day about the dreadful consequences of war, and especially it tells the "trooly loil" and President Grant, that in the event of a war, the "rebs" would rebel again and strike for the "lost cause" once more. Take care Standard, you will scare somebody besides yourself! One would infer from your silly ravings, that you saw the ghosts of dead rebels, hobgoblins and "Ku Klux" every night. Don't get scared, you shan't be hurt. We don't suppose there ever was as scarey and cowardly a set as the trooly loil men of the South. They are frightened at their own shadows, and an empty threat at home or from abroad frightened them into hysterics.—"Let us have peace."

"The Protest of B. F. Moore & Co."—Standard.

We are not disposed to bandy coarse epithets with the Standard about the Protest of the legal profession against the party political demonstrations of the Judges of the Supreme Court. Every intelligent reading man in the State remembers well the ridiculous, ultra partizan course and speeches, of the Judges, each one of them, at the time they were elected, and every reader of the Standard will remember how that paper boasted of the Judges, both before and after the election, as Republicans to the core. The files of the Standard will prove this, and the files of every paper in the State prove the truth of every word in the Protest.

Let the Standard and its votaries including the Judges writhe under this Protest.—They feel the power of its truth and point, and whatever they say, or may say or do, there it stands and there it will stand forever as an honorable mark in the Judicial history of the State. It can't be wiped out, and if the drivelling Standard don't know this, some of the Judges do.

As for the gentlemen who signed the Protest, we suppose they desire no controversy. They signed it in good faith and have nothing further to say. This is right. The Protest is a standing reply to all assaults.

NEW LAWS.

Hereafter, it is made by law the duty of the Solicitors of the State to keep a complete record of all cases tried by them, and to make semi annual reports, on oath, to the Attorney General, giving,

1. The name of the party, and the county where indicted.

2. The offense, when and where tried, and before what Judge.

3. The verdict, sentence, appeal or acquittal.

4. In case nol prosequi is entered, a statement of the reason therefor.

The report shall be made, on oath, by the Solicitor and approved by the Judge of the District.

The Superintendent of Public Works is hereafter to represent the State in person or by proxy in meetings of all corporations in which the State has an interest. Heretofore the Governor, with the approbation of the Board of Internal Improvements, had this power.

The Superintendent of Public Works is to report to the General Assembly, at every session, the condition and operations of every Railroad in the State. And all Railroad Companies, whether the State is Stockholder or not, must report to him, annually, full particulars in regard to their operation and management, which reports are to be submitted, by him, to the General Assembly.

LIEN OF EXECUTION.

We informed our readers, lately, that hereafter a tax list is to do exactly like an execution or fieri facias against the tax payer. We argued, therefore, that it will not be safe to buy any real or personal property without seeing the taxes paid.

We now discover another change of the laws which puts a different aspect on this matter.

An act has been lately passed, to take effect from its ratification, which provides that, after such ratification, a fi fa. does not bind personal property from its teste as heretofore, but only from actual levy on the property.

As many of our creditor class are racing after the fugitive property of the debtor class, we foresee numerous disputes on account of this law.

Debtors will sell their personal property as soon as they learn an execution against them has been obtained, and the Sheriff, who lets a horse or cow slip through his finger, will have to watch sharp to keep from being liable for negligence or delay.

Hereafter, it will be safe to buy personal property at any time before levy by an officer, or seizure for taxes.

THE TENTH PROVINCIAL COUNCIL.—This body, composed of prelates and reverend clergy of the Catholic Church, assembles at the Cathedral on Sunday next. The procession will move, as at the time of the Plenary Council, from the front of the Archbishop's residence up Mulberry street to the front entrance of the Cathedral. One of the principal objects of this Council will be, it is understood, to adopt proper measures to enforce and execute the legislation of the great Second Plenary Council of Baltimore. The solemn pontifical high mass will be celebrated by the Right Rev. Dr. Whelan, Bishop of Wheeling. At the ending of the mass and before the opening of the Council, a sermon will be preached by the Right Rev. D. Magill, Bishop of Richmond, and there will be sermons on every evening during the week by distinguished prelates. On Thursday (28th) there will be a solemn requiem mass for the deceased prelates who have died since the last Provincial Council in 1858. The labors of the Council will be closed on Sunday, May 2d, when the Right Rev Dr. Gibbons, Vicar-Apostolic of North Carolina, will preach at the high mass.—Balto. Sun, 22d.

IMPORTANT RUMORS FROM WASHINGTON. The New York Herald says:

Secretary Fish on Tuesday was called upon by Senor Roberts, the Spanish Minister, who demanded that a proclamation discouraging filibustering expeditions from sailing to Cuba should be issued by the President. The Secretary promptly declined to do anything of the sort, and said that as there was a revolutionary organization in arms in Cuba, formed by the native Cubans under their own provisional government, he could see no good reason to hinder the departure of any persons from this country who may choose to take up arms in their service. Minister Roberts, it is said, withdrew very much surprised, and afterwards submitted the same demand in writing.

In regard to the Mary Lowell affair, Secretary Fish has concluded that the British Government is liable to us for permitting her to be captured in British waters, and he has therefore made representations to that effect to the British Minister. As for the Lizzie Majors, however, several days ago he demanded full reparation and indemnity from the Spanish Government through Senor Roberts, who conceded the justness of the claims, and guaranteed that Spain would make satisfactory reparation. He promised to lay the matter before his home government immediately, but yesterday he informed the Secretary that he had not heard from the Government since. The Secretary then diplomatically informed him that war would ensue if an answer was not forthcoming shortly.

THE ORIENT AND OCCIDENT.—Rabbi Sneersohn, accompanied by President Samson, of Columbian College, and A. S. Solomons, Esq., had a lengthy interview on Thursday, by appointment, with the Secretary of State, in reference to the condition of the Jews in the Holy Land. The Rabbi, who speaks English with fluency, has been a resident of Jerusalem for twenty-six years, and the public position he occupies enables him to know the wants and condition of his people better than most of the persons who have hitherto visited us from that remote part of the world. He was warm and eloquent in his appeal to the Secretary for a more liberal construction of our foreign policy as applied to our consulate in affording protection to the Israelites of Zion, who are without a national representative or government to appeal to when oppressed by the surrounding hostile tribes and nations. The Secretary seemed fully alive to the necessities of the case, and our republican example to set the nations of the earth, who, though our seniors by birth, are not our elders in the advanced spirit of the age, and promised to give the subject his prompt attention.—National Intelligencer.

NEWS IN BRIEF.—The young ladies of New York are now adopting the role of "sweet simplicity," and appear at balls and parties in short muslin dresses, without ornament of any kind.

The African M. E. Conference is in session at Norfolk, Va. The opening sermon was preached by the Rev. A. W. Wayman, of Baltimore

Fourteen English baronets have died since January 1, 1869.

There are, it is said, 30 000 strangers in Rome, and board is six dollars a day.

Emile Oliver gets $5,000 for his book upon the imperial government.

Alexander H. Stephens' history of the civil war has had a sale of 51,000.

MONTREAL, April 21.—Advices from Guelph and other towns in Upper Canada, state that the country is inundated, owing to heavy rains and the sudden breaking up of the ice. The inundation already exceeds that of 1865. Provisions are sent in boats to families living on the flats. The amount of suffering is great, but so far no loss of life is reported. It has rained heavily since yesterday evening.

PEN AND INK SKETCHES OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA, AS IT HAS BEEN.

DEDICATED TO THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE, AND TO THE ALUMNI OF THE UNIVERSITY

NO. 1.

The University of North Carolina, situated at Chapel Hill in the beautiful hill country of Orange County, was founded almost immediately after the Revolution. We are all familiar with this fact, and also with the compliments that are always paid, when it is stated, to the Scotch and Irish blood of our early settlers, who are popularly believed to have been wider awake to the importance of education than any other class. That, they may have been. But it is one thing to have a keen desire for a good education and its accompanying advantages, and another thing to be willing to pay handsomely for it. Establishing a University was all very well, but when we come to look at its endowments, I do not think North Carolina has much room for bragging.

Gen. Davie may be said to have been the father of the University, though every man of distinction in the State, at that time, manifested a deep and cordial interest in the undertaking. The act of Corporation was passed in 1789, just eighty years ago.

ITS PRINCIPLES.

The great principle of preserving inviolate the civil and religious liberties of the people was early and deeply impressed on the minds of North Carolinians. There were certain gross acts of injustice and tyranny committed by the mother country, that no doubt did more to arouse the spirit of rebellion than the Stamp Act. For instance the charter of the very first college ever attempted in the State, Queen's College at Charlotte, Mecklenburg County, (college, town and county, all three, named in loyal compliment to the Queen of England,) was revoked by George III, because there were some trustees elected who were not members of the established Church of England. Besides, the money that belonged to the common school fund of that day was squandered by the Government in the erection of a superb residence in Newbern for the royal Governor Tryon. We may be very sure that the vow was registered deep in the hearts of our indignant fathers, that the day should come when their rights and liberties were to be respected and when their children were to receive a liberal education.

Therefore, in the establishment of a State University, no principle was more distinctly laid down than that it should be uncontrolled and uncontaminated by party politics, and that while the great truths of christianity should be taught and enforced there, no sectarian bias or interference should be tolerated. All honor to such principles, and to the men who carried them out!

ITS ENDOWMENTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina has always acted the step-mother's part to the University. What has been given to it by that body, has been given sparingly and grudgingly. At the beginning, nothing was done beyond endowing it with certain doubtful debts due the State, all escheated property, and subsequently all confiscated property: of this latter source of revenue, the Trustees were soon after divested. So that if aid had not been promptly and generously given by private munificence, it would have been long years before the Institution could have struggled into existence.

It is a principle in human nature to value that most for which we sacrifice most. If the people of North Carolina had been made to pay a good round sum early for the support of their University, ever since its foundation, love of it, and veneration for it, and a zealous care for its welfare and reputation, would have grown with their growth, and guarded it as with walls of adamant.

At the very first meeting of the Trustees, Col. Benjamin Smith (who had been an aid of Gen. Washington, and subsequently Gov. of the State,) gave the Institution twenty thousand acres of Chickasaw land. Major Charles Gerard, who had also served through the war, and who was childless, adopted the newly born child of the State, and bestowed on it property to the value of $40,000. Gen. Thomas Person, the old Chief of the Regulators, gave $1,025 in cash, towards the erection of the first buildings. This gift was the most immediately valuable of all, as there was little or no money in the country. These three men were the earliest, and remain yet the most munificent patrons of Chapel Hill, and their names, not descending to us through any of their blood, are preserved in Person, Gerard and Smith, Halls, among the University buildings, and will be fragrant in the State, as long as the love of letters remains among us. There were doubtless many men in North Carolina at that day richer than either of these. But they preferred a different investment of their money. Where now are their names, and what has become of their real estate? The Ladies of Newbern, in token of their interest in the undertaking, presented a Quadrant; and some years later, the Ladies of Raleigh a pair of Globes. I have seen the letter addressed by the Raleigh Ladies to the Trustees, on the occasion, written by the elegant pen of Mrs. Winifred Gales and signed by some dozen or more who were then prominent in Raleigh society. The paper was worn and discolored, and the gentle signatures much faded by time, but the generous impulse and the intelligent interest in a noble undertaking were still fresh and striking.

ITS BEGINNING.

What led to the choice of Chapel Hill for the location of the University, is a question I have never heard definitely answered. Gov. Swain himself, who knew more about most things than any other man in the State, never could say. The story is, the Committee appointed to determine the site, travelling through the uplands of Orange, stopped at Chapel Hill to lunch, and taking their refection at the foot of the great Poplar which now stands in the campus, fell so in love, under these benignant circumstances, with the beauty of the spot, that they resolved to look no further. Chapel Hill was certainly a local habitation, and had a name, before the days of the Revolution, for the ruins of a Chapel of the Church of England were plainly visible forty years ago on a lot then belonging to Dr. Mitchell. The house owned and occupied for so many years by old Mrs. Nunn must have been a roadside tavern very near, if not in, Revolutionary times. Whatever determined the choice, it must be allowed to have been fortunate. The situation is central, elevated, retired, and healthful. And how beautiful! Its hills and groves and glades are indeed fit to surround the walls of an Academe,—beloved haunt of the Muses—sacred to all gentle and classic companionship. Whoever lived there that did not love the very air that breathes over it, or left it without pangs of regret? What student of all its hundreds, has ever failed to cast a longing, lingering look back towards it, or has ever ceased to think lovingly of that golden time when he trod its walks, or reclined under the shade of its oaks.

The business of Education in the University was begun early in 1795, seventy-four years ago, Hinton James, of New Hanover, was the first student. The first instructors were the Revd. David Kerr, a graduate of Trinity College, Dublin, Professor of Languages; Mr. Charles Harris, of Mecklenburg, a graduate of Princeton, Professor of Mathematics, and Mr. S. A. Holmes, Teacher in the Preparatory Department.

The two Literary Societies, the Dialectic and the Philanthropic, were organized in that year. The Dialectic numbering twenty-seven members—the Philanthropic twelve. Next year the Phi's numbered seventeen and the Di's thirteen. Here it may be said that these Societies have exerted a marked influence in the University, and have been of the greatest service in stimulating the literary ambition, and forming the tastes of the young men. A generous rivalry has always existed between them, which Dr. Hooper in the inimitable "Fifty Years Since" says, was manifested in his day—about 1804; in this way: that when one Society got a new book, the other was sure to procure a copy of the same, only if possible, more handsomely bound.

ITS FIRST PRESIDENT.

Joseph Caldwell was a New Jersey man, and a graduate of Princeton. In 1795 he was Tutor at Princeton. He was appointed Professor of Mathematics at Chapel Hill in 1796, in the place of Prof. Harris, who had known him at Princeton, and by whose recommendation he was chosen here.

Dr. Caldwell was singularly well fitted to be the first President of a new College.

THE LITERARY INQUISITION.

One of the publishers' papers calls the attention of mankind, collectively and pointedly, to an abuse to which the attention of individual men has often been directed. It consists in the existence of what may be called the "Cheap John" of literature, although, in literature as in clothing, the Cheap usually turns out to be the dearest John.

Certain firms in certain rural towns of New England, who hold themselves out as publishers, periodically publish, "by subscription," books of the publication of which the urban reader only dimly hears, but which are brought home in a peculiarly painful manner to the business and bosoms of bucolic book-buyers. These books, with a wide range of diverse defects, have usually these three things in common: they are pirated, they are very bad, and they are very dear. They are kept far from the shops of reputable booksellers, and when they are ready the publishers despatch emissaries to devastate all quarters of the smiling landscape with them. These fiends perambulate the lamb-cropped lanes of the country, and proffer their wares to the guileless peasantry. In New York they would have no chance at all, for New York is virtuous, is enlightened, and has the counsel of its World to guide it in the buying of books as in the other affairs of life. But in the pastoral regions where there are no school-houses, where ignorance is so dense as to insure invariable Radical majorities, and where vice increases its evil by doubling its grossness, the credulous population listens to the voice of the tempter and is undone. The tempter is commonly either a broken down clergyman whose sands have nearly run out, or a discharged schoolmaster, and in either case has gained from his profession great length of wind and the habit of oratory. These gifts enable him to strike such terror into the bucolic soul that, if his milder monitions prove fruitless, he terrifies his victim with an exposition of the virtues of his stock, delivered at such length and with such function as finally compels trembling rusticity, in the absence of a contiguous policeman, into buying the book from sheer fright, lest the man should never stop. And what can be more pitiable than the plight of the victim of such arts, having parted with a portion of hard won wages in exchange for a mass of the historical misinformation or of the prurient fiction or of the twaddling piety of which the staple of these books consists, and having undergone, to boot, a torture so exquisite as recalls the horrors of the Inquisition, and, in its aggregate, swells incalculably the sum of human misery!—N. Y. World.

HEBREW PHILANTHROPY.

The Hebrews have always been remarkable for their excellent system of charitable relief, in which but one other religious body, the Quakers, can rival them. No one ever saw a Hebrew beggar, or a destitute Quaker, and this is not owing to the absence of want among them, but to their peculiar and thorough arrangements for taking care of their poor. Each synagogue has a Committee, composed of the most respectable members, whose business is to inquire into the condition of every Hebrew in their district, and to afford assistance to such as require it. They act on the simple principle of putting the needy in a situation to supply their own wants, and do not encourage pauperism. Work is furnished to such as cannot get employment, and many of the peddlers and glaziers in our city have been set up by them. The aged are pensioned, and the disabled placed in a hospital, or furnished with regular relief.—N. Y. Post.

ARRIVAL OF GENERAL ROBERT E LEE.—Gen. Robert E. Lee, of Virginia, reached this city last evening in a late train via the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and was received at the Camden Station by some personal friends, whose guest he will be during his sojourn here. The object of his visit is to meet the delegation of Virginians who meet at 10 o'clock this morning, at the Eutaw House, to confer with the special committee of the City Council in the interests of the Lynchburg and Danville and Virginia Valley railroads.—Balt. Gaz. of 22

REPORTED ABANDONMENT OF THE ALABAMA CLAIM.—The opinion of some of the shrewdest Senators and other gentlemen connected with the administration is that negotiations between England and America in regard to the Alabama outrages are at an end. With the summary and total rejection of the Reverdy Johnson treaty, the Gladstone Ministry, it is believed, will not venture upon new propositions, and our Government is quite willing to let the controversy rest, with the understanding that he shall use the precedent established by England if occasion offers. Several Senators will urge that the controversy over the San Juan treaty had better rest in the same manner.—Wash. dispatch to the Springfield Republican.

HEAVY LIABILITIES.—They do things on a liberal scale in Chicago. Wm. Sturges, one of Solomon Sturges' sons, who has just gone into bankruptcy there, reports his liabilities at $4,445,000

THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.

A most unusually enticing literary banquet is to be spread for the attendants at the closing exercises of this session at the University of Virginia. Charles O'Connor, Esq., is to deliver the address to the Societies. Rev. Dr. Mussey, of Baltimore, to be the speaker before the Young Men's Christian Association and Mr. Rives, the talented son of the late Wm. C. Rives, will be the orator of the Alumni. Such an array of celebrity has scarcely ever graced a similar occasion.—Pet. Index.

THE SIBYL.—Mr. Sumner said, in his late speech upon the Alabama claims treaty: "If our demands are larger now than at our first call, it is not the only time in history where such a rise has occurred. The story of the Sibyl is repeated, and England is the Roman King."

This classical allusion was worthy of the Republic in those grand primeval days, when a President embellished his messages by quoting what a "Roman consul" had observed, and when eagles and lions were rampant in congressional oratory. We trust it will not be omitted in the instructions to Mr. Motley. If England does not pay up after this argument she must be beyond the reach of reason and rhetoric. It is possible, however, that she may not see the force and harmony of the illustration. The Sibyl offered Tarquin nine books for sale, and upon his refusing to purchase, she burned three, then came back to the unappreciative old gentleman, and demanded the same price for the remaining six that she had for the nine. Not seeing the point, his majesty again refused, when the prophetess, having burned three more, returned, and insisted on the same price for the three remaining as for the nine, which, having his curiosity roused, Tarquin was fool enough to give, and so the famous Sybilline books came into the possession of Rome. Mr. Sumner has told us that England is "the Roman king," but he has not stated who is represented by the old woman who got so much more for her wares than they were worth, and who is said to come from the East, a point of the compass which has always been prolific of Sibyls, Senators, ambassadors, witches and the strong-minded generally. What good ever resulted to Rome from the purchase of the Sybilline leaves history fails to mention, and Mr. Charles Sumner has not vouchsafed to inform us. It would be considered a strange thing now to pay for three books the price of nine, unless the books consisted of senatorial orations, and a man was obliged to read them, classical allusions and all, in which case he would be willing to pay something extra to reduce the extent of the infliction. The force of the parallel, as employed by Mr. Sumner, must, of course, depend upon the likelihood that the willingness of England for a settlement with the United States will be increased in proportion to the unreasonableness of our demands. We doubt it.—Baltimore Sun.

THE WORKING PEOPLE.—The strike on the Second Avenue (N. Y.) railroad, as was mentioned in yesterday's Sun, has ended, after a contest of ten days' duration. The terms of the settlement are as follows: The men are to receive $2 a day for seven trips run according to the New York time-table, and in case the company desires eight trips, the drivers are to receive 25 cents additional, or an extra driver is to be put on, at the option of the drivers. The Sixth Avenue (N. Y.) railroad, it is reported, pays $2.25 for seven trips of ninety minutes each. The drivers are off duty two and a-half hours during the seven trips. The tailors' strike in New York, to obtain an equalization of the scale of wages in certain shops, is reported as having been successful. The New York Painters' Association report that employers are paying $4 for eight hours' work, and $4,50 for ten hours. Some employers, however, only pay $4 for ten hours' work. The brass founders and finishers of New York report wages at $3 for ten hours' work. The German Cabinet Makers' Association, of New York, numbering 2,800 members, has recently been successful in a strike for an advance of wages, which now range from $19 to $21 a week. A Working Man's Colony, consisting of 2,000 families, is to be established at Waterloo, Kansas. The advance party, consisting of 150 persons from New York, arrived at that point a few days ago.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

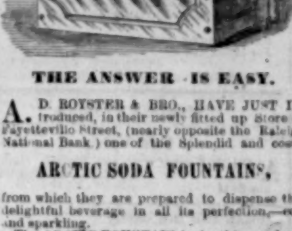

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

BAROMETERS.—The Experimental Farmer calls the attention of farmers to the barometer as an instrument of value at the time of securing their crops. It often happens that when the days are fine and lovely, and the busy farmer, not thinking of a change of weather, a rain or shower is coming on. By having a barometer hanging at the door one can notice the action of the mercury.—If the mercury keeps going down, no matter how fine the day is, he must prepare for falling weather; but if it goes up, he can be assured of dry, favorable weather.

The Buffaloe Advertiser (Radical) says Ashley's "infamy is notorious," and hopes he has the grace to feel like a detected sneak, which he hasn't, of course.

The Pope has sent for Beecher to come to Rome to expiate his sins. Beecher will find it necessary to go further.—Boston Post.

A CITIZEN OF NORTH CAROLINA IN LUCK.—We have the pleasing report that a citizen of Nash County, N. C., Mr. John A. Harrison, of the firm of Green & Harrison, of this city, has recently fallen heir to a large fortune, in England. He is now on his way across the ocean to look after his interests, and we trust we may hear favorable news of him.—Petersburg Index.

There are something (supposed to be a wolf) destroying the sheep around Sassafras Fork, in this county.—Ib.

From careful statistics presented by the Springfield Republican, it would seem that Massachusetts gets rid of an extraordinary number of the children that are permitted to come to birth. There are no means of knowing precisely how many ante-natal murders are committed in that State every year, and an estimate only can be made by showing that the increase in population is due almost wholly to the foreign-born and foreign-descended residents; but of 22,719 deaths in Massachusetts last year, nearly 21 per cent, (4 713) were of children less than one year old, while 3,192 more of ages between one and five years also died. The Republican considers this a quite needless waste of life, and thinks with proper care a third part of these children could be saved.

Georgia papers contain details of the murder of Dr. Benjamin Ayer, a Radical member of the Legislature of that State, who had, in consequence of the adjournment of that body, just returned to his constituency, in Jefferson county. Ayer was a carpet-bagger from some Northern State, was unknown to the white citizens of Jefferson, and during his previous visit to the county, some eight months before, had cohabited solely with negroes. On the 15th instant he reached Louisville, the county town, and stopped in the outskirts, at the cabin of a negro named Sherman.—He slept on the floor during the night and the next morning exhibited to Sherman, and other negro friends, his pocket book containing a large roll of money. Later in the day his body was found by the roadside. He had been murdered by the blow of a club on the head. Suspicion fell upon the negroes. One of them named Wilson was arrested, and on his person was found Ayer's pocket-book containing $285, and more money, amounting to $120, was discovered in the hands of the other negroes, who said Wilson had given it to them.—When the news of the murder reached Atlanta, the Radicals telegraphed it North as a "rebel assassination."

GEORGIA FACTORIES.—The Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle and Sentinel gives a list of twelve cotton mills in that region which draw their supplies from that cotton market, which aggregate over 70,000 spindles and 1,600 looms, demanding a minimum average for daily supplies of more than ninety bales of raw cotton. All these mills are prosperous and prospering. The Augusta Factory pays its stockholders regular quarterly dividends of five per cent., or twenty per cent. per annum. The established dividend of the Graniteville Factory is eight per cent.; all profits over and above this sum are held as a reserve fund and set apart as a banking capital; a policy make necessary by the existing limited National Bank capital, which has been wisely and profitably pursued. We derive this evidence of the prosperity of these mills from their regular reports. The remainder of the mills being close corporations, yield no statistical information as to their prosperity.

The Dayton Ledger, the organ of Mr. Vallandigham, comes out in favor of Gen. Thomas C. Ewing, Jr., for the Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio.

COLORED MEN IN OFFICE.—Gen. Grant, since his inauguration as President, has made the following appointments of colored men: Postmaster at Columbia, S. C., worth $3,000 a year; assessor of the first district of Louisiana, worth $1,200 a year; two justices of the peace in the District of Columbia, worth $1,000 a year each; minister to Hayti, worth $4,500 a year; minister and consul to Liberia, worth $5,000 a year.

The New York Commercial, alluding to the corrupt legislation of the times, says that there seems to be no security against the money power of the country. Statutes are bought the same as pork and potatoes. Honest legislators are overwhelmed by the power of venality and swept down by the tide of corruption. The evil grows worse and worse every year.

A scientific gentleman of Portsmouth, N. H., whose wife used tea pretty freely, and who for the last four years had suffered much from a nervous affection, recently made an analysis of the tea she used, and found that the coloring material was gypsum and Prussian blue, one of the most accostive poisons, and found that the amount in a pound of tea, if administered at once, would produce instant death.

In the list of Grant's biographers Badeau has been reached at last and has been rewarded, not with an appraisership, but with the appointment of Assistant Secretary of Legation at London. After the biographers, the publishers of the biographers are to be remembered; and then Bonner, who published the best of the biographies, may take the lead, even without the help of "Dexter."—*N. Y. THE COCKROACH.

BY JOSH BILLINGS.

The cockroach is a bug at large.

He is one of the luxuries of civilization.

He is easy to domestikate, yielding gracefully to ordinary kindness, and never deserting those who show him proper acts of courtesy.

We are led to believe, upon a close examination ov the outward crust ov these fashionable insekts, that they are a highly successful intermarriage between the burnette pissmire and the "artikilus beso," or common American grasshopper."

He don't leave the place he was born at upon the slightest provocation, like the giddy and vagrant flea, or the ferocious bed-bugg; and until death (or some vile power, the invenshun ov man,) knocks at his front door, he and his brothers and sisters may be seen with the naked eye ever and anon calmly climbing the white sugar bowl, or running foot-races between the butter-plates.

The cockroach is born on the furst ov May and the fust ov November, semi annually, and is reddy for use in fifteen days from date.

They are born from an egg—four from each egg—and consequently they are all of them twins. There is no such thing in the annals ov nature as a single cockroach.

The material bug don't sett upon the egg as the goose, doth, but leaves them lie a round loose, like a pint of spilt mustard seed, and don't seem to care a darn whether they get ripe or not.

But I never knew a cockroach egg fail to put in an appearance. They are as sure to hatch out and run as Kanada thistles, or a bad kold.

The coachroach is of two colors, sorrel and black. They are always on the move, and kan trot, I should say on a good track, and a good day, close to three minitts.

Their food seems to consist not so much in what they eat as what they travel, and often finding them dead in my soup at the boarding house, I have cum to the conclusion that a coachroach can't swim, but they can float.

Naturalists hav also declared that the cockroach have no double teeth. This is an important fackt, and ought to be introduced into all the primary school books of Amerika.

But the most interesting feature of this remarkable bugg is the lovelyness of their natures. They can't bite nor sting, nor skratch, nor even jack back. They are so amiable that I have even known them to get stuck in the butter, and lay there all day, and not holler for help, and acktually die at last with a broken heart.

FAMOUS STREETS.—Bonaparte rendered incalculable service to France, when he turned his attention to the construction of military roads through the extent of his empire. Napoleon III, closely imitating his illustrious predecessor, has so widened, straightened out, and improved the streets of Paris as to render them the wonder and admiration of the world. A comparison of some of the principal avenues and thoroughfares of this and other countries may be of interest to the reader. The "Neva Perspective," in St. Petersburg, generally considered one of the finest streets in Europe, is 130 feet broad. "Unter den Linden," the main street of Berlin, is 300 feet wide. In Paris, the "Avenue de l'Imperatrice," leading to the beautiful "Bois de Boulogne," is 429 feet in width; the "Avenue Nuilly" is 231 feet, the "Avenue Vincennes" is 231 feet, and the "New Boulevard Malsherbes" is 165 feet wide. The older boulevards of that city vary considerably in width, but none of them are less than 165 feet wide.—Atlantic ave., in Brooklyn, is 120 feet broad; Pennsylvania ave., in Washington, is 170 feet wide, while the other avenues vary from 120 to 140 feet and the streets from 80 to 140 feet, the average being 90 feet. In New York, Fourth ave., above Thirty-fourth st., was widened, not long since, to 140 feet; the other old avenues, however, are 100 feet wide. All the new boulevards will be at least 100 feet broad. It is deemed that 100 feet is amply sufficient for the width of most public thoroughfares. A breadth much greater than this would be incompatible with the best interests of this city, occupying too much valuable room, and involving too much expense. An exception to this rule will be made in several of our boulevards, where the avenues will be 150 feet wide.—N. Y. Tribune.

To the above list should be added Broad st., in Philadelphia, Euclid and Superior sts., in Cleveland, Delaware ave. and Main st., in Buffalo, all wide and handsome streets, the exact measurement of which we are at present unable to give.

AN ELOQUENT PASSAGE.

To George D. Prentice, of the Louisville Journal, the world is indebted for some of the most eloquent and beautiful passages to be found in the English language. The following is from his ready pen:

"It cannot be that earth is man's only abiding place. It cannot be that our life is a bubble cast by eternity to float a moment upon its waves and sink into nothingness. Else why is it that the high and glorious aspirations which leap like angles from the temple of our hearts are ever wandering unsatisfied? Why is it that the rainbow and cloud cover us with a beauty on earth, and then pass off to leave us to muse on their loveliness.

Why is it that the stars which hold their festival around the midnight throne are set above the grasp of our limited faculties, forever mocking us with their unapproachable glory? And, finally, why is it that bright forms of beauty are presented to our view and taken from us leaving the thousand streams of our affections to flow back in an Alpine torrent upon the heart. There is a realm where the rainbow never fades, where the stars will be spread out before us like the islands that slumber on the ocean, and where the beautiful beings which pass before us like shadows will stay forever in our presence."

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN, Or Pure Liquor of Juniper Berries.

This favorite brand of Pure London Cordial Gin, has stood the test of time, imitation, piracy, high tariffs and unfair competition, and still enjoys a constantly increasing sale; showing that true merit does not always go unappreciated.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is offered to the public as a perfectly reliable specific in all cases of DISEASED BLADDER and KIDNEYS. It acts directly on these organs, with a directness and speediness which render it invaluable to persons suffering from GRAVEL, DIABETES INFLAMED BLADDER, scanty and highly colored urine, and in all cases where, from whatever cause, a healthful diuretic is required.

Ladies subject to painful menstruation, can by the use of Cordial Gin a few days previous to, and during illness, obtain great relief. In such instances it should be taken with sugar and warm water.

As a tonic and beverage this Gin is unequaled, as it possesses none of the headache properties to be found in those poisons, now so frequently sold under the names of Gin, Brandy, Whiskey, &c.

WASHING COMPOUND.

Patented Sept. 22, 1868.

REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS SOAP.

The Patentee claims for this Soap the following advantages which are clearly set forth in the Letters Patent, to-wit;

First, it can be manufactured at less than half the cost of any soap ever produced.

Secondly, it may be used successfully in any kind of water—cold or hot, hard or soft

Thirdly, it so modifies the action of boiling water on woollen goods that the fibres do not contract under its influence, and your woollen garment is as large after boiling as before.

Fourth, it does not decompose the colors of goods, and your prints and stripes are as brilliant after washing as before.

Fifth the goods do not require any rubbing or put at washing machine—all that is necessary is a few minutes boiling and a good rinsing.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers, and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so muddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he looks into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of

$1,000,000

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,582 policies.

Amount insured,	$10,005,550.00
Total Premiums,	350,117.09

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 892

By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey,	691
" New England Mutual,	543
" Phœnix Mutual,	335
" Massachusetts Mutual,	312
" Equitable of New York,	277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.

In its 10th year,	1,360 "
And in its 20th year,	2,843 "

this latter being 690 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

CAPITAL OF THE STATE,

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

CAUTION! WE desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of Snuff generally, that since the war, certain Tobacco Manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them, as they are the losers thereby. It will be found, upon comparison, that Lorillard's Snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing greatage, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES

WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

The Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the best blanket. For flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of one Boiler will soon be reached in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

So invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.
